The New York Sun scores ex-President Cleveland unmercifully, calls him the stuffed prophet, and says he has re-appeared and issued a manifesto through the Associated Press, claiming all the credit for the result of the Democratic victory, when the fact is, he contributed not a word of encouragement during the campaign, and since the election he has raised his head from under the surface and cries aloud, "It was I, the Great Grover, that did it all." He is making a great play on the chess board, and will probably win. We will then see, after he is nicely slimed over, the Democracy swallow him with as much ease as they did two years ago.

In its issue of this week the Farmers' Advocate, the official paper of the Farmers' Alliance, the people's party of Kansas, has the following to say of the future of the party: "We shall at once commence to marshal the host of the people for the conflict of 1892. In this great work there are many prejudices to be overcome. Sectional lines must be abolished. Interests which are identical must be brought together against the combined forces of the corporations, monopolies, trusts, syndicates and moneyed aristocrats who have for years feasted upon the substance of the people. When we say that these forces are to be marshaled against the oppressors of the people we do not mean that the injustice which has characterized the corporate power of American is to be returned in kind. The people simply ask for justice—that alone, and that, by the Eternal, they will have.

RATIFICATION!

The Young Men's Club Palms the Town Red.

Last night the Young Men's Republican Club had possession of the town.

They marched up Main street headed by a drum corps, and all along the route the air blazoned with sky rockets and Roman candles, and as they passed the Capitol a glare of red fire streamed down from the dome.

Scores of transparencies were carried, and one bearing the name of Colorado was nearly a block long.

The noise of fire crackers and salutes kept up an incessant din, and the streets were crowded to see the show.

The members of the club moved along, a solid phalanx of torches, and for the time they held the town.

After the parade there was public speaking at the Opera House and short talks were made by Hon. H. F. Bartine, Surveyor Gen. Jones, J. D. Kersey and others.

The Old Thing.

As an illustration of our lack of patriotism, we will cite the Reno Flouring Mills. It is owned and operated by a number of energetic, enterprising citizens of Nevada. They went to the expense of cleaning free of charge large quantities of seed wheat, which they sold to Nevada farmers at first cost of the wheat, in order to make as good flour as could be turned out by any other mills upon the Coast. They succeeded beyond any question. No better flour is turned out of any mill in California. Nevertheless, the Nevada housewife will insist upon ordering California flour of her grocer, and will not even give the Reno flour a trial.

As Senator Evan Williams of Ormsby said yesterday: "A woman would be ostracized in Stockton if she used any other flour than Stockton flour."

A little more State pride, a little more patriotism, and a steady, earnest pull together, and Nevada will boom. She is too fair a ship to desert yet.—Enterprise.

Dismissed.

The case against Miss Ida Trapp, charged with threatening the life of Armstrong, her brother-in-law, was dismissed in the Justice Court and the complaining witness severely reprimanded by the Justice.

From the testimony it was clearly shown that Miss Trapp had never threatened to kill Armstrong, although the provocation he gave her by calling her vile names on the street, would have warranted her doing almost anything.

A clean butcher shop goes far towards keeping the meat fresh. Flies will not gather where things are clean. M. C. Gardner, Jr., has just such a market, where the finest lamb, beef, mutton, pork, sausage, etc., can be secured at any time.

CHIEF NATCHEZ.

His Opinion on the Indian Troubles.

Natchez, the Piute Chief, paid the Journal office a friendly call yesterday afternoon. He wanted to get the latest news concerning the Nye county Indian trouble. He said that they were caused by a Walker Lake Indian prophet, who predicted the general annihilation of the white race in a short time. This annihilation was to have taken place last spring, but as it didn't happen at that time the wily prophet postponed its coming to pass until this Fall. Natchez does not take any stock in this prophecy. He says this Indian has predicted such events too often, without anything coming of them.

In regard to the Nye county troubles he thinks they will not amount to much. The Piutes, he says, will live and die with the whites, and in case of war will help them.

Natchez himself was on his way below to talk with the officers of the Pacific Coast Division, whom he thinks he can give some points concerning the Nevada Indians that will be of interest to them.
